

Month	Direct Seed	Transplant	Seed Indoors (for later transplant)	Notes
January	English peas, Southern peas	Strawberries, tomatoes (post-frost, mid-March)	Peppers, eggplants, tomatoes (for spring)	Cool-season start; protect from freezes.
February	English peas, carrots, radishes, turnips	Basil, broccoli, cabbage, celery, collards, kale, lettuce, melons, summer squash, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, winter squash	Basil, peppers, eggplants	Last chance for some cool crops; monitor for aphids.
March	Beans, corn, okra, Southern peas, turnips	Basil, broccoli, cabbage, celery, cucumbers, eggplants, kale, lettuce, melons, peppers, summer squash, tomatoes, winter squash	-	Transition to warm season; frost risk low after mid- month.
April	Beans, corn, okra	Basil, broccoli, cabbage, cucumbers, eggplants, melons, peppers, summer squash, winter squash	-	Heat building; use shade cloth for transplants if needed.
May	Beans, okra	-	-	High heat/pests; focus on heat- tolerant crops.
June	Okra	-	-	Peak summer; consider cover crops over veggies.
July	Okra, sweet potatoes	-	-	Prep for fall; cover crops like cowpeas recommended.
August	Arugula, beets, bok choy, chard, mustards	-	Broccoli, cabbage, kale, lettuce, spinach (for fall)	Hot/humid; start cool-season seeds indoors.
September	Arugula, beets, bok choy, chard, mustards, radishes, turnips	Bok choy, broccoli, cabbage, chard, collards, kale, lettuce, mustards (late month)	Broccoli, cabbage, kale, lettuce, spinach	Heat lingers; watch for insects/diseases.
October	Arugula,	Bok choy, broccoli,	-	Ideal for fall crops;

	beets, mustards, radishes, turnips	cabbage, chard, collards, kale, lettuce, mustards		direct seed garlic.
November	Arugula, turnips	-	-	Cooling; protect late plantings from early frosts.
December	Arugula	-	-	Winter hardy crops; use row covers for protection.